The 1968-69 Season

Tom Gola . . . LaSalle's All Time All American Comes Home As Explorers' Coach

Thomas J. (Tom) Gola, everybody's All American who led La Salle's basketball team to its greatest heights in the mid-1950s, makes his collegiate coaching debut at his alma mater during the 1968-69 season.

For the 35-year-old Gola, who has established himself as a genuine Philadelphia folk hero, it is expected to be another niche in a brilliant career that has included stardom in the National Basketball Association, success as a Pennsylvania State legislator and a sound insurance and real estate business in nearby Fort Washington, Pa.

Perhaps the finest all-around schoolboy star in Philadelphia's history, Gola scored 2,222 points at La Salle High under coach Charlie (O'Bie) O'Brien, who called him "the greatest player since the end of the center jump." He was everybody's All American three years at La Salle College under coach Ken Loeffler. He helped lead the Explorers to the National Invitation Tourney crown as a freshman in 1952, the NCAA title in 1954 and the NCAA runnerup slot to San Francisco and Bill Russell in 1955. La Salle won 102 games and lost only 19 during Tom's career.

Gola's collegiate scoring and rebounding feats as an Explorer will probably never be surpassed. He finished with 2,461 points (20.8 ppg.) and 2,201 rebounds and grabbed just about every honor available at some point or another during his brilliant 121 game career that has gone down in La Salle's history as the Glorious Gola era.

As a freshman, Tom was co-MVP of the NIT with teammate Norm Grekin. As a junior, he was Player of the Year. He is a member of the Hall of Fame at the new Madison Square Garden. He was selected to Sport Magazine's All Time All American quintet and the Helms College Basketball Hall of Fame. Temple coach Harry Litwack called him "absolutely the greatest player I've ever seen."

After his graduation in 1955, Tom played in the NBA for a decade with the old Philadelphia Warriors and New York Knickerbockers. Named five times to the All Pro team, Tom scored over 8,000 points during his career and helped lead the Warriors to the world championship in his rookie season, 1956. His pro career was interrupted for two years of U.S. Army service.

Gola retired from the NBA after the 1966 season and was elected that November to the Pennsylvania State Legislature from the 170th District. Re-elected this November, he is a member of the Cities and Counties, the Higher Education, the Labor Relations and the Municipal Corporations Committees.

Although this will be his first official year in organized coaching, Gola is no stranger to teaching the finer points of the game. He has participated in numerous clinics, both professional and collegiate. As a pro "coach," he is unbeaten in two games, having taken over the Knickerbocker reigns twice for Eddie Donovan.

Much in demand on the banquet circuit, Gola handled color on Philadelphia 76ers radio broadcasts last year. An excellent golfer, Tom resides in northeast Philadelphia with his wife, Caroline, and nine-year-old son, Thomas Christopher.

ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT STAFF

JAMES J. HENRY
Director of Athletics

It might be considered somewhat ironic that James J. Henry should be Director of Athletics at La Salle College, a school that has not had a varsity football team since 1941, for football has played a great part in Jim Henry's life.

Before being graduated from Villanova in 1930, Henry received All American honorable mention at end, and when he came to La Salle in 1930 he was named line coach, then head coach in 1940 and 1941. In 1961 he was president of the Eastern Intercollegiate Football Officials Association, and he officiated many of the nation's top grid contests for some 25 years before retiring after the 1964 Army-Navy Game.

Football, however, is only part of the story of Jim Henry, for he is a man devoted not merely to a single sport, but to athletics and what college athletics stand for. In his 38 years at La Salle—34 of which have been spent as Athletic Director—he has given of his time and energy equally for all sports. He coached the 1931 Explorer basketball team to a 15-4 record and helped organize La Salle's crew, the first Catholic College crew in the nation. A total of nine varsity sports bring national recognition to the college through his guidance.

Mr. Henry has served on many committees including the Eligibility Committee of the Middle Atlantic Conference and Holiday Tournament Selection Committee of the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference. He is also vice president of the Pennsylvania Hall of Fame, Maxwell Memorial Football Club and the Middle Atlantic States Collegiate Athletic Conference.

A Professor of Finance on La Salle's faculty, Henry received the honorary degree of doctor of law from the college in 1955. He and his wife have three adult children.

JOHN J. CONBOY
Assistant Athletic Director

John J. (Jack) Conboy was appointed to the newly-created position of full-time Assistant Athletic Director at La Salle, Oct. 2.

Conboy, 44, graduated from La Salle in 1950. He recently retired from the U.S. Army, after 20 years service, with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. A veteran of three wars (World War II, Korea and Vietnam), Conboy served on the ROTC staff at La Salle from 1960 to 1964.

Conboy was a member of St. Joseph's Prep's last city championship football team in 1939. After three years of World War II service in Europe, Conboy enrolled at Georgetown where he played football for two years before transferring to La Salle.

Conboy was assistant football coach at St. Joseph's Prep from 1948 to 1950. He also coached Army football and basketball teams in Europe and Hawaii and organized a triathlon team at La Salle which produced three present members of the U.S. Army modern pentathlon team—Don Walheim, Bill Conroy and Gary McNulty.

Conboy, who holds an MBA degree in Industrial Management from Temple University, resides in Drexel Hill with his wife, Anne, and four children.

CURTIS E. FROMAL
Freshman Basketball Coach

Curt Fromal, leading scorer on La Salle College's 1964-65 NIT basketball team, was appointed freshman basketball coach and varsity assistant coach of the Explorers, in August.

Fromal replaces Bill Wilson, who resigned to become head basketball coach and a member of the faculty at Lourdes Central Catholic High School, Cleveland.

Fromal, a peppery 5-9 playmaker, scored 411 points and made the UPI "Little" All America first team his senior year as the Explorers gained an NIT berth against Detroit and finished with a 15-7 record under coach Bob Walters.

Curt also made the Big Five and Middle Atlantic Conference first teams. He is perhaps best remembered for his fantastic second half performance against arch-rival St. Joseph's, in 1965, when he scored a career high of 34 points and helped bring the Explorers back from a 20 point deficit to a near-upset of the third-ranked Hawks.

Fromal, 27, has been teaching in the Chichester School District the past two years. The former Ridley Township High star is a resident of Folsom, Pa.

DAVID A. ERVIN
Assistant Coach

Dave (Lefty) Ervin, an outstanding two sport performer at La Salle College until his graduation this June, has been added to the Explorers' basketball and baseball staffs as part-time coach.

Ervin, 23, will assist freshman basketball coach Curt Fromal and handle some scouting and recruiting. In addition, he will be assistant to head baseball coach Gene McConnell.

Dave was co-captain of La Salle's basketball and baseball teams last year. A starter on the basketball varsity as a sophomore, Ervin spent most of the next two years as the Explorer's sixth man and gained the reputation as one of the outstanding substitutes in the nation. He scored a total of 756 points for his career.

In addition to his duties at La Salle, Ervin will also serve on the faculty at Archbishop Ryan High School. A graduate of Abington High, he lives in Roslyn, Pa.

EXPLORER PROSPECTS

WLODARCZYK, CANNON and SZCZESNY in action against Temple.

AS COACH GOLA SEES IT:

". . . if the defense tightens up, it should be a real good year . . ."

With all five starters coming back and some promising newcomers coming up, it looks like we will have a good balance of experience, height and offensive power this year. We have some 6-6 and 6-7 boys who move well and have excellent scoring ability—there's no doubt about that.

In pre-season practice, though, the team appeared to develop faster offensively and this poses my greatest coaching challenge—teaching them good, sound, man-to-man defense where they react quickly enough to help their teammates. I have always held the theory that a good defensive team will beat the good offensive team. Every club is bound to have a cold shooting night now and then. This is when the defense must do the job.

With the talent that we've had in practice, it has not been an easy job deciding on the starting team. Larry Cannon, Bernie Williams and Stan Wlodarczyk will definitely be in the first five. They have all done fine jobs in the past. Another starter will be Ken Durrett, a sophomore with great potential. The other starter will depend on the game situation: if we need height, Ed Szczesny gets the call; if we're looking for speed, it will be Roland Taylor.

On the bench, I can call on veterans like Fran Dunphy, who gives us solid help in the backcourt, and Joe Markmann, a senior who can do the job up front. Also seeing action will be juniors Stan Witalec and Ed Holzer, who have been hampered by injuries during pre-season practice, and promising sophomores like Greg Cannon, Bill Michuda, Bob Walters and Bob Walsh.

The team that plays this year will include players who can go both ways for forty minutes. If the starters can't do the job consistently, we have enough bench strength to substitute frequently. The boys have been working hard, so if the defense tightens up, it should be a real good year for La Salle.

MEET THE EXPLORERS

(*) Returning Lettermen

Lawrence T. (Larry) Cannon
Senior 21 6-5 195 Philadelphia, Pa.

A Pre-season All American Selection and an outstanding pro backcourt prospect, Larry will go down as one of the greatest all-around players in the Explorers' colorful court history. "Unlimited potential . . . makes plays the 'Big O' would envy," says Ray Kelly, of the Philadelphia Bulletin. "Hasn't even scratched the surface of his potential," says Bill Conlin, of the Philadelphia Daily News. As a sophomore (1966-67) he averaged 18.7 ppg., the greatest scoring average ever registered by a first-year player at La Salle. Last season, he led the Explorers to the NCAA Tourney with 546 points. Only three La Salle players have ever scored more in one year. Larry will probably hit the coveted 1,000 point career mark in La Salle's 1968-69 opener (he needs six points) and should wrap up his career as the third highest scorer in Explorer history. Larry's all around play is as equally impressive as his many scoring moves. Besides being the top scorer, he led the team with 134 assists and was second in rebounding with almost 10 a game. Statistics, though, can't describe his extensive portfolio of spectacular scoring moves or picturesque finesse in directing the fast break. He demonstrated it best in last year's Middle Atlantic Conference Championship Playoffs against American U. and Temple when he thrilled the Palestra audience with 50 points, 22 rebounds and seven assists. His best overall game last season came against Syracuse when he had 30 points, 18 rebounds and six assists, but his career highs—32 points against Oklahoma City and 25 rebounds against Western Kentucky—came as a sophomore. That's the year when he thrilled fans at the Vanderbilt Invitational in Nashville with a brilliant court display. At one point in the opener against Nebraska, he came down the floor off fast breaks four straight times and scored on four spectacularly different moves. He had 30 points and 11 rebounds against the Cornhuskers, broke the tourney record for field goals (14) and made the All Tournament team despite missing most of the final against Vanderbilt because of severely bruised heel. He was also La Salle's top rebounder as a soph with 10.3 a game. Larry was co-MVP of the Middle Atlantic Conference last year and has made the All MAC and Big Five first teams two years in a row. Last year he was also named to numerous All East teams, a unanimous All State selection, the All Boston Garden Tourney team and various All Opponent squads, including the select Buffalo Auditorium opponent quintet. A Scholastic All American, Larry led Lincoln High (coach Harry Silcox) to the Public League championship in 1965. He scored 493 points that year, the second highest total in the city's history, surpassed only by Wilt Chamberlain's 566 at Overbrook High. Twice he scored 49 points in scholastic games and, in 1965, was MVP of the high school all star game at the New York World's Fair. Larry also led La Salle's freshmen in scoring with 251 points (20.9 ppg.) and had the best individual game on the team, 39 at Seton Hall. General Business major.

*Bernard (Bernie) Williams

Senior 22 6-3 175 Washington, D.C.

One of the nation's outstanding shooters, Bernie's long jumper could very well carry him to a pro basketball career. He was La Salle's second leading scorer with 16.9 ppg. last year, made almost 47% of his shots and needs only 212 points to join the select 1,000 point career mark. When he's "on," Bernie is one of the most exciting players around: Besides his devastating long distance shooting, he has quick reflexes, rebounds well and is an excellent ballhandler. He was most instrumental in La Salle's six game winning streak last year when he connected on 68% of his shots from the field (65 of 112). He was named to the All Tournament Team of the ECAC Holiday Festival after thrilling Madison Square Garden fans with 26 points against West Virginia and 24 against Louisville. In the second win over Syracuse he hit 12 of 16 from the floor, including eight straight outside bombs. His career high is 31 against West Chester. Bernie was named to the weekly ECAC All East team and first team on the Big Five and Middle Atlantic Conference squads as well as numerous All Opponent teams. Great things have long been predicted for Bernie but several injuries limited his effectiveness as a sophomore. Before the season, he developed a severe eye infection; then he came down with a sore knee; then he developed stomach trouble. For the first month he was hitting at a 50% clip (53 for 106) with 25 points against Niagara and 40 in the Vanderbilt Tourney. Then he sprained his left ankle against Penn and missed the next four games. Afterwards, it was an uphill battle to regain his consistent outside touch. He came back for 23 point games each against Loyola and Oklahoma City and finished the year with a 14.2 average. Bernie made Scholastic All American and led DeMatha (Hyattesville, Md.) High to an 82-7 record in three years. DeMatha (coach Morgan Wooten) was the only team to beat Lew Alcindor's Power Memorial squad, four years ago, before 13,000 fans at Maryland's Fieldhouse. Alcindor was held to 16 that day; Williams had 13 points and 14 rebounds as DeMatha won, 46-43. Later that year Bernie was named MVP of the Dapper Dan All Star game, in Pittsburgh. Business Administration major.

Stanley J. (Stan) Wlodarczyk

Senior 21 6-6 210 Mahanoy City, Pa.

Stan, who was probably one of the most improved players in the East last year, has gained some much needed weight (20 pounds) and should be even better. He's not a real strong scoring threat but makes up for it tremendously with his rebounding and defensive play. His best overall game was against Miami when he scored his career high of 19 points, and 16 rebounds and blocked a half-dozen shots before fouling out in the last 30 seconds of the game. He had 15 points against Duquesne and 14 points and 14 rebounds against St. Joseph's. Stan suffered a fractured nose early in the season against Bucknell but played well in the next five games with a protective face mask. He finished the season as La Salle's third leading rebounder (9.4 a game) and averaged 8.3 ppg., good enough to make honorable mention on the MAC All Star Team. As a sophomore, Stan got off to a slow start but developed both his confidence and skills underneath rapidly as the season progressed. He finished second on the team in rebounding (9.9) and averaged 6.9 ppg. with his best scoring effort of 18 coming against St. Francis. Stan's career rebounding high is 17, registered against Bowling Green as a sophomore and Albright last year. He played at Mahanoy Area High (coach Dave Linkchorst) and was the first Schuylkill County League player to make All State in both wire service polls. He also made honorable mention Scholastic All American after averaging 23 points and 26 rebounds his senior year. That team finished with a 24-2 record and went all the way to the Eastern PIAA finals against Steelton.

*Roland M. Taylor

Senior 22 6-0 170 Washington, D.C.

Roland did a fine job solving La Salle's playmaking problems last year despite a mid-season bout with pneumonia. Not a prolific scorer (but not one to be underestimated, either), he was the Explorers' best defensive ballplayer, was second on the team in assists with 77, and averaged 7.3 ppg. He also dispelled some premature theories about a lack of outside shooting ability with a career high of 17 points against St. Joseph's (7 for 11 from the field) and 15 against Temple in the MAC championship game. A graduate of Dodge City Junior College (Kans.) where he averaged 24 ppg. in 1966-67, Roland was named his team's MVP and made his conference and regional all star teams two years in a row. He's a graduate of Washington's Fairmount Heights High School and he became interested in La Salle through present Explorer backcourt partner Bernie Williams. Sociology major.

1967-68	27	77	44	94	198	7.3

Gregory P. (Greg) Cannon

Sophomore 19 6-0 173 Philadelphia, Pa.

A scrappy, hard-nosed competitor with good defensive ability, Greg started in the backcourt for last year's freshmen and averaged 10.6 ppg. His best game was an 18 point effort against Mercer Community College but he also led the team with 51 assists and 72 steals in 16 games. The younger brother of Larry Cannon, Greg captained Lincoln High School's quintet (coach Harry Silcox) and made All Public in 1966-67. English major.

*Edward L. (Ed) Szczesny

Senior 22 6-8 215 Plymouth Meeting, Pa.

A transfer from the University of Oklahoma, Ed was one of the East's most pleasant surprises last year. After being out of competitive basketball for two years, he came back to play every game, led the Explorers in rebounding (10.1 a game) and finished third in scoring (13.2 ppg.). He led the regular in field goal percentage (48.6%) and also turned in the top individual efforts—32 points against Creighton (15 for 20 from field) and 20 rebounds against Gettysburg—both career highs. Perhaps his greatest thrill came against Duquesne, when he scored all six Explorer points in overtime to bring La Salle back from a five point deficit to win its first game in Pittsburgh in eight years. Against West Virginia in the ECAC Holiday Festival, Ed came through with 24 points (10 for 12 from the field) and seven assists. An easy-going, happy-go-lucky type, Ed's collegiate career has not been a bed of roses. His athletic and academic progress was impaired by a two year battle with a thyroid condition that was finally cleared up with the assistance of team physician, Dr. Eugene Gallagher. Szczesny and former Notre Dame football star John Pergine helped lead Plymouth-Whitemarsh to the state basketball title in 1963 and eastern regional championship the following year. Ed's school lost only two games during his varsity career. As a senior, he was team captain, made All State, set school records in scoring (607 points) and rebounding (20 a game) and shooting percentage. Industrial Management major.

Joseph M. Markmann

Senior 21 6-6 208 Huntingdon Valley, Pa.

Joe has helped in quite a few reserve appearances the last two years and is expected to do the same again. He was the only Explorer to finish last season with a perfect free throw record (5 for 5). He averaged only 1.5 ppg. last year but had a career high of 12 rebounds against Lafayette. His scoring career high of 11 points came against Louisville two years ago. His biggest moment as a soph, however, came in the MAC Playoffs against St. Joseph's when he grabbed a key rebound in the dying seconds and made a vital pass downcourt for the field goal to help seal an Explorer upset. At La Salle High (coach Obie O'Brien), Joe made second team All Catholic in basketball and first team in baseball as a first baseman. He has played the same position on the Explorer varsity the past two years. His father, Joseph G., a C.P.A., is Associate Professor of Accounting at La Salle. Joe is a Dean's List Mathematics major.

*Francis J. (Fran) Dunphy
Junior 20 5-11 155 Drexel Hill, Pa.

Fran developed rapidly enough last year to become the Explorers' top backcourt reserve. He didn't score often (career high, nine against Lafayette), but helped considerably with sharp ballhandling and defense. Perhaps his finest all-around effort came in the win over Morehead State when he triggered a second half rally with three field goals, a pair of clutch free throws and some accurate passes underneath to the big men. Fran was a three sport star at Malvern Prep (basketball coach Dan Dougherty), making the All Interacademic football and basketball teams and doing a fine job in baseball before graduating in 1965. As an Explorer freshmen he averaged 16.7 ppg., scored a high of 22 against Gettysburg and made 52.9% of his shots from the field for the season. Accounting major.

Kenneth L. Durrett
Sophomore 19 6-7 188 Pittsburgh, Pa.

Ken led the Explorer freshmen in every offensive category last year and appears destined for a brilliant varsity career. Blessed with amazing reflexes, he is one of the most promising "close-in" shooters and rebounders in the nation. He led the Explorer yearlings in scoring (25.1 ppg.), rebounds (14.0), field goals (132) and free throws (66) and shot 50.9% from the field. His best overall game came against the Albright frosh when he had 33 points and 21 rebounds. Ken made scholastic All American two years in a row at Pittsburgh's Schenley High (coach Willard Fisher) and was named the best player in the Eastern United States by the Basketball News after his senior year when he averaged 28 points and 20 rebounds a game and received the MVP award at the Johnstown Tourney. General Business major.

Edgar L. (Ed) Holzer
Junior 20 6-4 175 Philadelphia, Pa.

An unspectacular but steady-type ballplayer, Ed appeared in six varsity games last year. In 1966-67, he led the freshmen in rebounding (87) and averaged 11.8 ppg. His best individual games were 24 points against Lafayette's yearlings and 13 rebounds against Villanova's frosh. At Cardinal Dougherty High (coach Jack Pergolin), Ed played two years in the backcourt and made second team All Catholic his senior year. The Cardinals were 17-4 that year. Holzer received the Coaches' Graduation Award as the student excelling best in scholarship and athletics in 1966. He also served as a tutor in the Community Service Corps in high school. Business major.

1967-68	6	0	0	4	0	0.0

Robert J. (Bob) Walsh

Sophomore 18 6-3 171 Philadelphia, Pa.

Bob has come a long way on hustle and desire. After being relegated to a reserve slot in pre-season practice, he battled his way to a starting position and wound up as the fourth leading frosh scorer with 12.1 ppg. He had highs of 27 points against Williamson Trade and 15 rebounds against St. Joseph's. He also was the best foul shooter on the team (44 of 51 shots). As a freshman at Cardinal Dougherty High, Bob was 17th man on a 29 man squad; sophomore year he was cut; junior year he was a JV reserve. Senior year he not only made the varsity, but started, made All Catholic and was team co-captain. In addition, he pitched and played the outfield on Dougherty's baseball team. History major.

Robert W. (Bob) Walters

Sophomore 19 6-4 178 Meadowbrook, Pa.

Bob moved into a starting frontcourt position on the freshman team last year after Bill Pleas was injured and did a commendable job. His best games were against Williamson Trade when he scored 15 points and against Villanova when he grabbed 12 rebounds. He played in all 16 games and averaged 7.1 ppg. Bob played at La Salle High (coach Obie O'Brien). His father, Bob, is the former Explorer basketball star who was La Salle's head coach for the 1964 and 1965 season. English major.

Stanley R. (Stan) Witalec

Junior 20 6-3 180 Philadelphia, Pa.

Stan appeared in only four varsity games last year but has good shooting ability and could see more action with additional experience. Two years ago, he was leading the freshmen in scoring after five games with 19.4 ppg. when he fractured his left foot against St. Joseph's and missed the rest of the season. Stan made All Catholic twice and led Northeast Catholic High (coach Jack Friel) in scoring as a senior with 21 ppg. In high school he was a member of the Honor Roll, the Falcon Spirit Committee and Student Council. Mathematics major.

William A. (Bill) Michuda
Sophomore 20 6-2 183 Milwaukee, Wis.

Bill played varsity basketball as a freshman at St. Norbert's (Wis.) College before transferring to La Salle in September, 1967. A good ballhandler and shooter, he could battle his way into a top reserve backcourt slot. He was captain of Marquette High's varsity quintet in 1966 (coach John Glaser) and made All Conference. Sociology major.

LA SALLE'S NATIONAL RANKING

(Final Season Finish)

ASSOCIATED PRESS	UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL
1949-50—10th	1951-52—17th
1952-53— 6th	1952-53— 4th
1953-54— 2nd	1953-54—11th
1954-55— 3rd	1954-55— 3rd

According to the combined AP and UPI polls for the 1950s, La Salle was the 11th best "team of the decade." Since then, however, the Explorers have not finished in the top twenty of either poll though they did hop into the rankings for a few weeks during the 1959-60 season and again in 1964-65. La Salle has never finished first for the season in either poll, but the Explorers did occupy the top rung for a lengthy period during the 1954-55 campaign.

1. UNIVERSITY OF BALTIMORE

Wednesday, December 4, 7:05 P.M. (EST), at the Palestra

SERIES RECORD:
LA SALLE 3, BALTIMORE 0

OUTLOOK: Bees expect best season since World War II. Four starters return and a group of highly-rated sophs and transfers are moving up. Vets include Felix Bucci (16.3), Earl Trusdell (12.3), playmaker Ken Cubiciotti (10.2) and Jim Vogtman (10.0). 6-2 guard Isaiah Wilson led frosh last year with 32 ppg. 6-6 Chuck Olkowski, Phila. Community College's top scorer in 1966-67, is expected to help.

Wednesday, December 11, 8:45 P.M. (EST), at the Palestra

SERIES RECORD:
LA SALLE 7, MIAMI 3

OUTLOOK: Despite having leading scorer Don Curnutt (22.7) back, the Hurricanes will be hard-pressed to replace Rusty Parker and Billy Soens, who combined for over half the club's scoring and rebounding last year. 6-7 Jerry Stevenson is the only vet up front. 6-7 transfer Wayne Canaday and 6-6 soph Willie Allen are best bets for other spots underneath. Vet Tom Green's experience could earn other guard slot.

Saturday, December 14, 8:30 P.M. (EST), at Student Center, Niagara Falls, N.Y.

SERIES RECORD:
NIAGARA 12, LA SALLE 10

OUTLOOK: Once again, scoring sensation Calvin Murphy (52 vs. LSC) leads the Purple Eagles. Overall, he averaged 38.2 ppg. But a replacement must be found for 6-8 Manny Leaks, who had 25 rebounds vs. LSC. 6-5 Steve Schafer, 6-3 Bill Zeits, 6-4 Jim Malfetti and 5-10 Mike Brown should be more consistent. 6-1 Joe Russell, a double-figure scorer as a soph, returns after missing the year with a knee injury. Not much help expected from newcomers.

5. CANISIUS COLLEGE

Wednesday, December 18, 8:45 P.M. (EST), at the Palestra

SERIES RECORD:
LA SALLE 9, CANISIUS 3

OUTLOOK: Shorthanded in rebounding once again, the Griffins will be relying on the aggressive scoring and rebounding of 6-4 Tony Masiello (18.2 ppg.) and such promising sophomores as 6-1 Gene Roberson, 6-3 Tim Richardson and 6-5 Kevin Spitler. Veteran Roger Brown (11.2 ppg.) will bolster the backcourt. 6-6 Tom Pasternak and 6-3 Bob Trenta have looked good in the past; 6-5 soph Dave Mack is counted on for the future.

7. PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY

Friday, December 27, 9:00 P.M. (EST), at the Spectrum

SERIES RECORD:
LA SALLE 1, PENN STATE 0

OUTLOOK: Lions must learn new system, which includes a tough man-to-man defense, without graduated leading scorer Jeff Persson. Guard Tom Daly (15.3 ppg.) is best of four returning starters. 6-8 Bill Stansfield (11.3), 6-6 Bill Young and 6-2 Jim Linden return along with 6-5 reserve Galen Godbey, substitute guard Gregg Hamilton. Lions will be looking for more rebounding consistency and don't figure to have much better than a break-even season.

DePAUL UNIVERSITY

SERIES RECORD:
DePAUL 2, LA SALLE 1

OUTLOOK: Demons figure to have more speed and defense but could be a year away because of an inexperienced, but promising, backcourt, comprised of sophs Joe Meyer (coach's son) and Ed Goode. 6-3 Al Zetzche (15.3 ppg.) will move to the frontcourt after a year at guard. 6-7 center Ken Warzynski (13.9 ppg.) also returns. 6-4 Tom Hunter, an excellent rebounder, will battle 6-3 Tom Tracy for the other forward slot.

W. KENTUCKY 11, LA SALLE 5

OUTLOOK: Hilltoppers lost four starters, including Ohio Valley MVP Wayne Chapman, but have one of finest sophomore groups in history to take up slack. 6-9 center Walt Banks, an occasional starter, and 6-1 Rich Hendrick (16.3) are key veterans. Top newcomers include 7-0 center Jim McDaniels, touted as possibly best player in school's history, 6-7 Clarence Glover and 6-3 guard Jim Rose. Hendrick had 18 vs. LSC last year.

Wednesday, January 22, 8:45 P.M. (EST), at the Palestra

SERIES RECORD:
PENN 11, LA SALLE 10

OUTLOOK: With plenty of experience and a strong sophomore crop, the Quakers should have better height, depth and scoring balance. Vets Pete Andrews and Carl Robbins have guard and center slots nailed down. Sophs Steve Bilsky, Dave Wohl and Jim Haney will battle veteran Steve Pearsall for the other backcourt position. Jeff Osowsk, apparently recovered from an ankle injury, and 6-7 soph Jim Wolf could start at forward. Andrews and Pearsall had 16 and 14, respectively, in big upset over LSC last year.

15. TEMPLE UNIVERSITY

Saturday, January 25, 8:45 P.M. (EST), at the Palestra

SERIES RECORD:
TEMPLE 31, LA SALLE 25

OUTLOOK: The Owls have six regulars back and will be extremely tough under the boards. Big problem will be to replace high-scoring Clarence Brookins. Heading returnees is 6-5 John Baum, team's top scorer and rebounder (19 pts. and 19 rebs. vs. LSC in MAC playoffs). 6-5 Joe Cromer, 6-9 Ed Mast, 6-5 Jim Snook and guards Tony Brocci and Drew Nolan form strong nucleus. Such sophs as 6-3 Bill Strunk and 6-5 Jack Kirschling will help, also. Owls are always tough defensively; could use more speed.

Tuesday, January 28, 8:30 P.M. (EST), at the Jaffa Mosque, Altoona, Pa.

SERIES RECORD:

LA SALLE 2, ST. FRANCIS 0

OUTLOOK: The Frankies were among the nation's top ten in scoring and rebounding; should be tough again. Starters back are the great 6-1 Norm Vanlier (18.8 ppg., 10.9 rpg. and 280 assists), 6-1 Bill Snodgrass (17 ppg.), 6-7 Larry Lewis (17 ppg. and 17 rpg.) and guard John Kerr. Top sophs are 6-10 Mike Copeland, the tallest Frankie in history, 6-5 Ken Tabaka and 6-2 guard Len Aden. Vanlier had 30 points, 10 rebounds and 8 assists against LSC two years ago.

Wednesday, February 5, 8:00 P.M. (EST), at Easton, Pa.

SERIES RECORD:
LA SALLE 17, LAFAYETTE 5

OUTLOOK: Leopards lost ten games by six points or less, last year; figure to be much better since only 6-5 Bob Clements has graduated. 6-6 Ken Skillman, 6-2 Mike Miller and 6-2 Bob Waller, all starters for second half of season, should form nucleus. Guards George Lefkowski and Vic Caola are experienced. 6-5 center Bob Cole played well at times. 6-5 Ron Moyer (19.4 ppg. for frosh) appears to be best newcomer; 6-8 soph Ed Skuchas also could help.

19. VILLANOVA UNIVERSITY

Saturday, February 8, 8:45 P.M. (EST), at the Palestra

SERIES RECORD:
VILLANOVA 11, LA SALLE 8

OUTLOOK: Very bright. Only one starter graduates and the only problem might be finding a strong-shooting backcourt running mate for playmaker Frank Gillen. Johnny Jones, the team's top scorer and rebounder the past two years, strong Sam Sims and Frank McCall return up front. Veteran guards include Bob Melchionni and George May. 6-8 Howard Porter, touted as one of the greatest Wildcat prospects in history, should give team a big lift offensively. Guards Joe Walters and John Fox and forwards Hal Watson and Clarence Smith add depth.

22. DUQUESNE UNIVERSITY

Wednesday, February 19, 8:45 P.M. (EST), at the Palestra

SERIES RECORD:
DUQUESNE 10, LA SALLE 9

OUTLOOK: 6-9 Gary Major, 6-8 Phil Washington (13.4 ppg.), 6-4 Moe Barr (15.2) and 6-2 Billy Zopf, (13.8) return as starters. 6-10 twins Garry and Barry Nelson, 6-5 Jarrett Durham and guards Steve McHugh and Tim Bradley come up from unbeaten freshman team, so Dukes should be even stronger, especially in the height department. Graduated were leading scorer Ron Guziak and "sixth man" Rich Carlberg (20 and 17 vs. LSC, respectively, last year).

23. UNIVERSITY OF DETROIT

Friday, February 21, 8:45 P.M. (EST), at the Palestra

SERIES RECORD:
DETROIT 1, LA SALLE 0

OUTLOOK: The addition of 6-8 U.S. Olympic team star center Spencer Haywood, a transfer from Trinidad JC, should make the Titans much stronger. 6-8 Al Peake heads a banner crop of sophomores who will add speed and depth. The team lost top scorer Bruce Rowdan among eight graduated seniors, but veterans like 6-6 Jerry Swartzfager and 6-4 Vyto Abramavicius should have good years.

Tuesday, February 25, 8:30 P.M. (EST), at Hollinger Fieldhouse, West Chester, Pa.

SERIES RECORD:
LA SALLE 22, WEST CHESTER 6

OUTLOOK: Plenty of experienced players on hand, but the Rams lack height and a strong scoring threat like the graduated Pete Chambers. 6-6 Vic Schuster is the tallest veteran. Forwards Dave Van Horn, John Brown and Jim Weller hustled for 31 rebounds against the taller Explorers last year. Playmaker Barry Nagle also returns. Despite tougher schedule, team should improve if defense holds up.

PAST RECORDS

1967-68 IN REVIEW

La Salle's 1967-68 Explorers finished with the school's best record (20-8) and first NCAA Tournament team in 13 years, thanks to a devastating fast-break, a vastly-improved defense and fine all-around play of high-scoring forward Larry Cannon.

The Middle Atlantic Conference champions finished the season by losing to Columbia, 83-69, in the first round of the NCAA at College Park, Md. But La Salle still had its best record since the glory days of Tom Gola when the Explorers won the NCAA title in 1954 and finished runnerup to San Francisco the following year with a 26-5 mark.

"This club ran the fast-break as well as anyone I've ever seen," said Coach Jim Harding. "I was proud of them. They never gave up."

Besides adapting remarkably to Harding's single-post offense, the Explorers improved almost 13 points a game on defense compared to 1966-67. La Salle's 68.7 ppg. allowed was the school's best defensive showing since Ken Loeffler's great 1954-55 club allowed only 63.7 ppg.

Cannon, who was elected the club's "Most Valuable Player" by his teammates at the end of the season, led the Explorers in scoring (19.5 ppg.) and assists (134) and finished second in rebounds (278). The 6-5 junior scored 546 points, the sixth highest single-season total in La Salle's history. Larry fell just six points short of becoming only the third player in the school's history to score 1,000 in two years.

Ed Szczesny, the surprising 6-8 sophomore, led the team in rebounding (281) and field goal percentage (48.6%) and was third in scoring (13.2). Szczesny, a transfer from Oklahoma, also turned in Explorer team highs for the year with 32 points against Creighton and 20 rebounds against Gettysburg.

Bernie Williams, the much-improved 6-3 junior, led the team in free throw percentage (78.5%) and was second in scoring (16.9 ppg.). Bernie's total of 475 points was the ninth highest single-season effort in La Salle's history.

La Salle's other starters also did their jobs well. Stan Wlodarczyk, 6-6 junior from Mahanoy City, Pa., was third in rebounds (263) and one of the most improved players in the East, especially on defense. Roland Taylor, a 6-0 transfer from Dodge City (Kans.) Jr. College, finished second in assists (77) and did a fine playmaking and defensive job.

The only seniors on the club were forwards Dave (Lefty) Ervin and Dave Bednarik. Ervin, who finished his varsity career with 756 points (9.9 ppg. chiefly as a reserve), picked up "Instant Offense" and "Super Sub" tags during La Salle's mid-season six game streak by hitting 37 of 52 field goal attempts (71.2%).

The Explorers had winning streaks of six and five games and never lost more than two in a row during the year. Impressive victories came over Temple and Syracuse (twice each), West Virginia, St. Joseph's, North Carolina State, Miami (Fla.), Morehead State and Duquesne, among others. La Salle won for the first time in Miami in six years and first time in Pittsburgh in eight years.

Cannon made the Middle Atlantic Conference and Big Five All Star teams and was named co-MVP of the MAC as well as being named to three weekly ECAC All East squads, the Boston Garden All Tourney team and All State squad. Williams was named to the MAC squad, received one weekly ECAC award and also made the ECAC Holiday Festival team.

Cannon and Ervin were also elected official 1967-68 co-captains by their Explorer teammates at the end of the season. La Salle used game captains during the campaign.

THE LA SALLE STORY

La Salle College celebrated its Centennial Year in 1963 and now is well into its second century of service to higher education and the community of Philadelphia.

The College was founded March 20, 1863 by the Brothers of the Christian Schools and derives its name from the founder of the Christian Brothers, St. John Baptist de La Salle. By 1929, having outgrown three previous locations in Philadelphia, the campus was moved to its present 30 acre site at 20th st. and Olney ave., in the East Germantown section of the city. The Evening Division was inaugurated in 1946 in response to the needs of industry throughout the metropolitan area.

Since 1945, La Salle has experienced the most dramatic period of expansion in its history. Present enrollment in both Day and Evening Divisions is over 6,400 students as compared to the 1940 enrollment of about 400. In the last 16 years, twelve new buildings have been added to the campus. Both the Day and Evening Divisions offer degree programs in Arts and Sciences and Business Administration.

Eight modern residence halls accommodate over 800 out of town students. A $2 million, three story College Union Building, completed in 1959, includes a Little Theatre as well as dining halls, assembly rooms, ballroom and other student facilities. The $2.5 million Science Center, which houses modern lecture rooms and laboratory facilities for study and research in Biology, Chemistry, Geology, Physics and Psychology opened in 1960. New dormitories to accommodate 200 students opened last year. Under construction are an athletic activities building and a new classroom building.

Additional educational areas are located on a 52 acre campus in Elkins Park and on an 80 acre area in Springfield Township. The Army Artillery ROTC program was initiated in 1950 and now numbers more than 1,000 cadets.
